I. Read the passage given below.

10

1. The ‘Little Tramp’, the unforgettable character Charlie Chaplin invented, was born purely by accident in 1915. While rushing to a film shoot in California, he grabbed clothes other people had left behind in the changing room and when he emerged, he found he had created a personality everybody loved. A little guy in a bowler hat, a close-fitting jacket, a cane, outsize shoes, and a brush-like moustache!
2. Before long, Chaplin found himself a star. That baffled him, for he saw himself essentially as a shy British Music Hall comedian. His first feature-length film was The Kid (1921), followed by A Woman of Paris (1923), The Gold Rush (1925), and The Circus (1928). He initially refused to move to sound films in the 1930s, instead producing City Lights (1931) and Modern Times (1936) without dialogue. His first sound film was The Great Dictator (1940), which satirised Adolf Hitler. The U.S. acknowledged him as its king of silent film comedy. Soon, so did crowds all over the world.
3. But life wasn’t always a laugh for Charles Spencer Chaplin. Both his parents were Music Hall Artists, who separated when Charlie was very young. His childhood was very sad, for his mother never earned enough to look after Charlie and his older brother, Sydney. Sometimes, Chaplin had to sleep on the streets and forage for food in the garbage.
4. Charlie took his first bow on stage when his mother made her last appearance. It happened when her voice broke during a song. Her son stepped on stage and sang a popular song. That is when a star was born.
5. Through all these years of success, Charlie never forgot his troubled childhood. It made him recall a Christmas when he was denied 2 oranges and his bag of sweets for breaking a rule at the orphanage he went to, after his mother's death. It would have broken his heart if the other children had not offered him a share of theirs. Spontaneously, the adult Chaplin gifted the orphanage with a motion picture machine and insisted that every child should have as many oranges and sweets as they pleased.

Be the Best

1. If you can't be a pine on the top of the hill,
Be a scrub in the valley—but be
The best little scrub by the side of the rill,
Be a bush if you can't be a tree
5. If you can't be a bush be a bit of the grass,
And some highway happier make;
If you can't be a muskie then just be a bass
But be the liveliest bass in the lake!
We can't all be captains, we've got to be crew,
10. There's something for all of us here
There's big work to do and there's lesser to do,
And the task we must do is near.
If you can't be a highway then just be a trail
If you can't be the sun, be a star,
15. It isn't by size that you win or you fail
Be the best of whatever you are!
